February 22 - 26, 2021

*Equipping church leaders to be compassionate and
wise in pastoral care,
church administration,
and Biblical preaching.*

1. We believe the Bible is the inspired and complete Word of God and that it is our guide for faith and practice in all cultures for all time.
2. We believe Jesus has commissioned and equipped His followers not only to follow Him personally but also to disciple others; we believe it takes the brotherhood working together to do that discipling; but we believe church leaders are responsible for leading out in and giving oversight to the work.
3. We embrace historical Anabaptist theology and practice as reflected in the confessions up to and including the 1963 Confession of Faith.
4. We see many influences shaping conservative Anabaptist people and sometimes hindering the mission Jesus gave us. These influences include but are not limited to:
 - a. Protestant theology
 - b. Materialistic values
 - c. Pietistic emphases
 - d. Emergent church
 - e. Traditionalism
 - f. Modern Psychology
5. We observe that many conservative Anabaptist pastors feel ill-equipped to face the challenges of shepherding in this day, and we believe the need is urgent to provide help for pastors.

The Freedom of Modest Living

Instructor: Dave Yoder

How does the Christian navigate the cultural maze of instant gratification, self expression, latest gadgetry and fads, and the all encompassing American dream? The empty excesses of our pleasure crazed culture enticingly peels away the Biblical fabric of modest living. Gratefully, though disdained by many, there remains a freeing pathway for those who tire of the glamor of the empty facades that society embraces.

First Period (9:00 – 10:30 am)

Principles of Growth and Change (Pastoring)

Instructor: Milo Zehr

Studying & Communicating Biblical Truth Effectively (Preaching)

Instructor: Dave Yoder

What all of us need the most is truth. And that truth comes to us in a Person and in a Book. In this course we will look at how we can effectively communicate the unchanging truth of the Living Word of God to a dying world that seems to be forever changing.

Lunch (12:15 – 1:00 pm)

Third Period (1:00 – 2:30 pm)

Introduction to World Views (Theology)

Instructor: Chester Weaver

What are the prevailing world views in our western culture today? The course examines several worldviews and concludes that the Theistic worldview is the only adequate worldview to explain reality.

Fourth Period (2:45 – 4:15 pm)

Round Table Discussion

The Round Table Discussion will be moderated by Milo Zehr.

Pastoring is not about learning techniques in handling people. Rather it is learning how to humbly partner with Christ so that His divine influences come to bear on human issues.
