February 21 - 25, 2022

*Equipping church leaders to be compassionate and
wise in pastoral care,
church administration,
and Biblical preaching.*

1. We believe the Bible is the inspired and complete Word of God and that it is our guide for faith and practice in all cultures for all time.
2. We believe Jesus has commissioned and equipped His followers not only to follow Him personally but also to disciple others; we believe it takes the brotherhood working together to do that discipling; but we believe church leaders are responsible for leading out in and giving oversight to the work.
3. We embrace historical Anabaptist theology and practice as reflected in the confessions up to and including the 1963 Confession of Faith.
4. We see many influences shaping conservative Anabaptist people and sometimes hindering the mission Jesus gave us. These influences include but are not limited to:
 - a. Protestant theology
 - b. Materialistic values
 - c. Pietistic emphases
 - d. Emergent church
 - e. Traditionalism
 - f. Modern Psychology
5. We observe that many conservative Anabaptist pastors feel ill-equipped to face the challenges of shepherding in this day, and we believe the need is urgent to provide help for pastors.

Evening Open to the Public

Living Into The Opportunity

Post-modernism is providing a hitherto unavailable opportunity for Kingdom Christians. The times are becoming increasingly similar to ancient Roman times. How did the early Christians navigate the uncharted waters? How can we?

8:00 – 8:45 pm

Relating Redemptively Amidst Conflict

Instructor: Dave Yoder

Do you ever get tired of the conflict, the accusations, the side taking, the gossip, the biting and devouring, the tense conversations, the late night meetings, the misunderstandings, the judging of motives, the put downs, the hurts, the distance, and the sadness?
